

KING COUNTY POSSE

Membership Application

Welcome!

Prospective members are always invited and encouraged to come out and visit with the King County Posse at any event prior to applying for membership in order to better understand the organization and its membership.

Questions can be directed to Bill Woodworth at 206-387-6561

- Applicants are required to pay the annual dues ($50) plus prevailing insurance fee ($19) at time of application
- Applicants are required to attend at least 3 King County Posse participating events on horseback after applying for membership. These events include: parades. Flag entries other than the Ellensburg Rodeo or ride practices where at least two designated King County Posse members are present.
- Applicants will be notified after the third event of membership status for that year.
- Both horse and rider will be judged by the entire membership on suitability for membership on the King County Posse.
- Notification may include:
 - 1) Denial with return of annual dues only.
 - 2) Complete acceptance as a member.
 - 3) Acceptance but requested to continue to participate with the group for another year before being allowed to perform grand entries at the Ellensburg Rodeo.
- Applicants who decide they would like to cancel their application prior to acceptance will receive a refund of the annual dues only.
